

Figure 13.8 (a) A tree representing $N = 8$ feature estimates within a single particle. (b) Generating a new particle from an old one, while modifying only a single Gaussian. The new particle receives only a partial tree, consisting of a path to the modified Gaussian. All other pointers are copied from the generating tree. This can be done in time logarithmic in N .